On September 4, 2015, the court issued an order commanding AOL, Inc. ("the Provider") not to notify any person of the existence of the warrant until March 5, 2017, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

On January 19, 2016, the United States filed a motion requesting an extension of the court's order re nondisclosure on the ground that disclosure of the warrant will seriously jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation. See 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b)(2), (3), and (5).

For good cause shown, the court GRANTS the motion (Docket No. 6). It is ORDERED that, under 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b), the Provider shall not disclose the existence of the warrant, the United States' motions, or this court's orders to the listed subscriber or to any other person until at least March 31, 2017, unless and until otherwise authorized to do so by the court, except that the Provider may disclose the warrant to its attorney(s) for the purpose of obtaining legal advice.

It is further ORDERED that this matter shall remain under seal until March 31, 2017, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 19th day of January, 2015.
